IDEA

Interior Design Excellence Awards

The Interior Design Confederation is a non-profit organization and a registered society under Singapore law. Registered in 2003, IDC(S) evolved from the merger of two professional organizations - the Interior Designers Association founded in 1984 and the Society of Interior Designers founded in 1994, which had similar goals and objectives. IDCS is committed to encourage and support creativity and competence in the field of interior design through facilitating best practice, practical professional support, development opportunities and education.
